Chapter 2 SCOPE OF ACTIVITY OF THE MNB

2.1 Fundamental duties:

- a) defining and implementing the monetary policy,
- b) issuing banknotes and coins, including commemorative banknotes and coins,
- c) accumulating and managing official foreign exchange and gold reserves in order to preserve the external stability of the Hungarian economy,
- d) performing foreign exchange operations in connection with the management of the foreign reserves and the implementation of the exchange rate policy,
- e) overseeing the payment and settlement systems, as well as securities settlement systems and the operations of the system and the operations of the organisation performing the activity of the central counterparty, in order to ensure the sound and efficient operation of these systems and the uninterrupted completion of cash transactions, furthermore participating in setting up payment and settlement systems, and securities settlement systems,
- f) collecting and publishing statistical information, and operating a central bank information system,
- g) developing the macroprudential policy regarding the stability of the whole financial intermediary system, for the purpose of which the MNB shall identify—within the framework stipulated in the MNB Act—the business and economic risks jeopardising the entirety of the financial intermediary system, foster the prevention of the development of systemic risks, as well as the mitigation or elimination of the already existing systemic risks, and further—in the case of credit market disturbances—contribute to the balanced realisation of the intermediary system's economy-financing function by lending incentives, or—in the case of excessive outflow of credits—by the curbing thereof.

2.2 Without jeopardising the fulfilment of the MNB's primary objective and fundamental duties, as additional tasks, the MNB shall:

- a) act as resolution authority,
- b) perform the oversight of the financial intermediary system,
- c) perform—through the Hungarian Financial Arbitration Board—the out-of-court settlement of the disputes with regard to the establishment and fulfilment of legal relations entered into between the consumer and the organisations or persons falling within the scope of the laws specified in Article 39 of the MNB Act, for the use of service.

2.3 The MNB shall participate in the preparation and publication of studies related to the information of the customers of the persons and organisations falling within the scope of the laws specified in Article 39 of the MNB Act, the strengthening and spreading of financial literacy, as well as to the supervisory and supervised activities, and also in the support of the activity of the civil consumer protection organisations.

- 2.4 The MNB shall perform the duties of the organisation performing payments on behalf of Hungary in respect of the amounts payable to the International Monetary Fund from time to time, including also the fulfilment of the payments related to the participation in the Special Drawing Rights Department of the International Monetary Fund. It may issue non-transferable bills without interest payment obligation in favour of the International Monetary Fund. The duties of the financial body prescribed by the Statute of the International Monetary Fund shall be performed by the MNB on behalf of Hungary; thus, it is entitled to conclude and manage operations and transactions, and act as beneficiary in its capacity as financial body in respect of any amount transferred or paid to Hungary. The currency reserves of the International Monetary Fund held in Hungary shall be kept with the MNB as the designated depository.
- 2.5 In the course of its account management activity, the MNB shall manage the single treasury accounts and the payment account of the Government Debt Management Agency Private Limited Company.
- 2.6 The MNB is entitled to:
- a) act in the securities market as the agent of the government based on Article 148 of the MNB Act, proceed in the fulfilment of duties related to foreign currency borrowing, issuance of foreign securities and the management of the government's foreign receivables;
 - b) for the purpose of ensuring the stability of the financial intermediary system, make proposals to the Government for the codification of law or to initiate legislations, in public as well;
 - c) keep bank accounts, in forint and foreign currency, for the organisations stipulated in Article 159 of the MNB Act, and in connection with those accounts to render financial, supplementary financial and investment services;
 - d) acquire and maintain equity stake in the organisations established in connection with its activity or those operating the payment system, as well as in organisations performing stock exchange, clearing house, central securities depository and central counterparty activities.
- 2.7 The MNB performs the duties specified, in addition to the MNB Act, in the law or the legal provision issued based on statutory authorisation.

Chapter 3 REGISTERED CAPITAL AND SHARES OF THE MNB

3.1 Registered capital of the MNB

The MNB Act establishes the registered capital of the MNB.

The registered capital shall consist of 1, that is, one registered share, with a nominal value of HUF 10,000,000,000, that is, ten billion Hungarian forints.

3.2 Production of the MNB's share

In the event the appointment of the Deputy Chairman expires, the Monetary Council shall, at its subsequent meeting, elect a new Deputy Chairman.

6.3 The scope of competence of the Monetary Council

The powers of the Council are governed by the MNB Act and the Internal Rules of Procedure of the Council (hereinafter referred to as 'Rules of Procedure').

6.4 Rules of Procedure of the Monetary Council

The Council shall define its own Rules of Procedure within the limits determined by the MNB Act and other laws.

6.5 Meetings of the Monetary Council

Meetings of the Monetary Council may be convened at any time deemed necessary, but a meeting shall be convened at least once a month. These ordinary meetings and any extraordinary meetings convened on different dates shall be convened and chaired by the Chairman. Any member of the Council may request the Chairman to convene a meeting.

Chapter 7 THE GOVERNOR

7.1 The MNB is headed by the Governor. The Governor of the MNB carries out duties defined by law, in the Statutes and the resolutions of the Monetary Council, the Financial Stability Board and the Executive Board. The Governor of the MNB decides on issues not referred to the authority of the above bodies of the MNB.

7.2 If the Governor of the MNB is prevented from carrying out his duties, he shall be substituted by the Deputy Chairman of the Council, except when issuing a decree. The Deputy Governor designated by decree shall substitute the Governor of the MNB for the issue of a decree.

Chapter 8 EXECUTIVE BOARD

8.1 Legal status of the Executive Board

In respect of certain functional responsibilities stipulated in the MNB Act, the Executive Board is responsible for implementing the decisions of the Council and the Financial Stability Board, and for managing the operation of the MNB.

8.2 Members of the Executive Board

8.2.1 Members of the Executive Board:

- a) Governor of the MNB, as chairman of the Executive Board, and
- b) the Deputy Governors of the MNB.

8.2.2 The chairman acts on behalf of the Executive Board. Pursuant to Act V of 2013 on the Civil Code (hereinafter referred to as the Civil Code), the management of the MNB shall be performed by the Executive Board.

8.3 Scope of competence of the Executive Board

8.3.1 The MNB Act and the rules of procedure of the Executive Board govern the scope of competence of the Executive Board.

8.3.2 The rules of procedure approved by the Executive Board set out the division of duties and authority between members of the Executive Board.

8.4 Rules of Procedure

The Executive Board independently defines its Rules of Procedure in accordance with the MNB Act, other legislation and the Statutes hereunder.

8.5 Meetings of the Executive Board

The Executive Board holds meetings with the necessary frequency. It holds regular meetings in accordance with meeting times determined in advance in its work schedule. The chairman convenes and chairs the above regular meetings and extraordinary meetings—convened at times other than specified in the work schedule—of the Executive Board.

Chapter 9 FINANCIAL STABILITY COUNCIL

9.1 Legal status of the Financial Stability Council

Among the cases within the MNB's competence, within the strategic framework defined by the Monetary Council, the Financial Stability Council—as the MNB's body—shall act on behalf of the MNB in decision-making concerning the tasks specified in Articles 4(5) and (7) to (9).
